Hauser & Wirth

21st March – 24th March 2024

London Original Print Fair 2024

Booth S9

Somerset House

London

Hauser & Wirth debuts at London Original Print Fair with an outstanding selection of contemporary and historical works, reflecting the gallery's diverse international program and ongoing support for collaborations between artists and master printers. The gallery brings contemporary editions by Rita Ackermann, George Condo, Rashid Johnson, Mark Bradford, Amy Sherard, Thomas J Price, Anj Smith, Sonia Boyce, Bharti Kher and Mika Rottenberg, alongside prints by modern masters Louise Bourgeois, Luchita Hurtado, Eduardo Chillida, Takesada Matsutani and more. Following Hauser & Wirth's inauguration of a new dedicated Editions space in New York, the gallery's ongoing work with prints and editions highlights the important role of printmaking within the multifaceted practices of its international family of artists.

Prints by modern masters Louise Bourgeois and Luchita Hurtado are offered alongside 20th-century works by Eduardo Chillida presented in tandem with the centenary of the artist's birth. The booth also includes a selection of historic works by Takesada Matsutani from the 1960s – 1970s—during which time he worked at Atelier 17 in Paris, Stanley William Hayter's printmaking studio.

Special charitable editions

Hauser & Wirth brings two special charitable editions to LOPF 2024. These include a benefit print by Bharti Kher, 'Mimesis' (2023), the proceeds of which will support her upcoming solo exhibition at Yorkshire Sculpture Park, opening on 22 June 2024, and a special edition lamp by Mika Rottenberg created from recycled household plastic titled 'Earth Edition Series' (2023) for Earth Day 2024.
