

12 ISSUES FOR £39.95 PLUS NOBLE ISLE BODY LOTION WORTH £26

SUBSCRIBE NOW

What to do this week: London's longest running art fair

The English Home team shine a spotlight on what to do this week, from exciting new collections to showroom launches to events to visit.

Author: The English Home

Published Date: 14 March 2024

SHARE THIS ARTICLE

Rosie Emerson, 'I have fallen a long way, clouds are flowering' Edition 5

We shine a spotlight on what to do this week, from exciting new collections to showroom launches to events to visit.

What to do this week

Now in its 39th year, London Original Print Fair is returning to Somerset House from 21-24 March 2024.

This year's event will showcase around 40 different exhibitors, including print studios, publishers and top international art dealers. The fair will feature world-renowned artists like Hockney Auerbach, Rego, Beatriz Milhazes, as well as highly-respected modernist masters like Picasso and Matisse.

Proscinemi for Dionysos, 1982, Soft ground etching and aquatint, Paper and Image 102.4 x 152.6 cm, Edition of 60, Courtesy Cristea Roberts Gallery

Guests will embark on an extraordinary journey of discovery, education, and exploration as they delve into the world of original prints spanning five centuries. From esteemed historical and modern masters to cherished contemporary artists and emerging talents, the breadth of printmaking on display promises a unique and enriching experience.

Whether seeking affordable art pieces, a unique addition to their home, or aiming to expand their collection with notable works from renowned artists, the London Original Print Fair caters to all tastes and preferences.

Hokusai, 1830-1831, T-Tago Bay Near Ejiri on the Tokaido- from the series -Thirty-Six Views of Mt. Fuji-, Courtesy Japan Print Gallery

Highlights of the event will include opportunities to engage directly with artists, access to exclusive editions and debut launches, as well as enriching talks and hands-on creative activities such as live printmaking demonstrations.

Find out more

SHARE THIS ARTICLE

Sign up to receive The English Home's newsletter. As well as a selection of the very best articles direct to your inbox, you will receive exclusive reader offers, savings on magazine subscriptions and more

Sign Up

More from Upcoming Events

What to do this week: London's longest running art fair

A guide to London Design Week 2024

DCCH Twinkle of Christmas Fair returns

The English Home host Decorex 2023 talk: Timeless Design

